

Alta Scuola Politecnica (ASP) is a school for young and exceptionally talented students, with a passion for innovation, who wish to develop their potential in a multidisciplinary community.

ASP selects 150 students per year, among the applicants to the Master of Science programs -- MSc (Laurea Magistrale) in Engineering, Architecture and Design at Politecnico di Milano (PoliMi) and Politecnico di Torino (PoliTo).

The ASP program runs parallel to the MSc programs of the two institutions. The official ASP language is English.

ASP offers courses, dedicated to develop interdisciplinary expertise and links between the students' different disciplinary backgrounds, and multidisciplinary projects, developed in close collaboration among small teams of students, academic tutors, and companies or public institutions.

Students are selected for the ASP program from the top 5% of the BSc classes, obtaining financial support and, when needed, free on-campus accommodation; students who successfully complete the ASP program receive the ASP diploma and the double MSc Degree from both PoliMi and PoliTo.

Graduation Ceremony

ASP 3rd cycle

June 16th 2009, 15.00

Aula Carlo De Carli
Politecnico di Milano, Campus Bovisa
Via Durando 10, Milano
and on video streaming at www.asp-poli.it

In 2004 the Politecnico di Milano and the Politecnico di Torino founded the Alta Scuola Politecnica (ASP) focused on multi-disciplinarity and innovation.

It was a challenge, as there were few examples and models of such an interdisciplinary approach to graduate education. Since then, five classes of ASP students have been selected.

The Graduation Ceremony of the students of the class of 2006 is an opportunity not only to celebrate those who have successfully completed a demanding and intense program, but also to re-think and elaborate over a program that joins the robustness of deep vertical education (provided in the MSc courses of Politecnico di Milano and Politecnico di Torino) with the richness and openness of a horizontal interdisciplinary program (provided by ASP).

The ceremony is open to ASP students and Alumni, to the scholars of both Politecnico di Milano and Politecnico di Torino and to our investor institutions.
